I found some on their web site but it must be for a newer revision as mine has more buttons and they dont seem to have the same function. Mine was manufactured in 1997. The thing is in working order but i just cant set the timer. Cheers.It was designed before they gave any thought to useability. As the OP said, the current model is massively different and the Danfoss site only seems to have the current models instructions. The link given in the reply is dead. Appreciate any help! family.<https://www.dianasbridal.com/UserFiles/buy-haynes-manual.xml>

Zillow recommends that parents tour multiple schools in person to inform that choice. Historically, GreatSchools ratings have been based solely on a comparison of standardized test results for all schools in a given state. As of September 2017, GreatSchools ratings also incorporate additional information, when available, such as college readiness, academic progress, advanced courses, equity, discipline and attendance data. Learn more Disclaimer School attendance zone boundaries are provided by a third party and subject to change. Check with the applicable school district prior to making a decision based on these boundaries. In addition, school data is obtained from a third party vendor and not guaranteed to be accurate, up to date or complete. D C Edge 5.0 out of 5 stars But, if theres a power cut, when the power comes back on it defaults your heating permanently on and goes into a blank screen mode. Not what you want when the power goes out in a midsummer thunderstorm in the wee small hours, or when youre away for a fortnight. Really stupid bit of design. You have to reset back to factory settings to get it going again. Im told its because the internal rechargeable battery has died and that battery cant be replaced. Did I say stupid. The user interface is prety nonintuitive too I always have to get the instructions out to change the time or settings, whereas the old one it replaced was obvious. Not something Ill use again. To use all of the Thermostat features, the optional communications cables is required.

The unit can be configured to be a Programmable Room Thermostat PRT, Group Control Thermostat, Group Thermostat or Hot Water Timer. Communication between neighbouring JGSTAT2 and JGSTAT1 Dial Thermostats is possible via the JGWC Wiring Centre pictured below and the optional communications cables. More information can be found on pages 9 and 10. Safety Information. Use in accordance with the regulations. The Aura JGSTAT2 is to be used for room control of heating and hot water systems inside buildings. We hope you enjoy this product. Installation must comply with the guidance, standards and regulations applicable to the location where the product is installed. Failure to comply with the requirements of the relevant guidance, standards and regulations could lead to injury, death or prosecution. Sources of danger. The thermostat must be disconnected from mains supply before removing the cover. Emergency. Switch off the voltage to the individual thermostat, wiring centre or complete system. 230v AC Warning. Always isolate the AC Mains supply before installing or working on any components that require 230v AC 50Hz supply. Installer parameter settings. The Aura JGSTAT2 is equipped with an Installer Parameter section see page 40. This must only be entered by the installer or a competent person. Changing these parameters can have a serious effect on your heating system. For the installer. Please enter any parameter changes in the Installer Notes section pages 7275. 04 JGSTAT2 Instruction Manual 5 System Overview Configuration Options 1 2 Group Control Thermostat Programmable Room Thermostat PRT The unit can be configured to either one of the following. Wiring Centre SYSTEM OVERVIEW 3 Group Thermostat 4 Timer UFH Manifold Radiator Boiler Hot Water 05 6 System Overview Configuration Options Programmable Room Thermostat PRT.

When configured for PRT see page 31 the Programmable Room Thermostat mainly works by itself and allows the user to have separate Time and Temperature control of each zone on the wiring centre. Features like Holiday, Party and Frost mode have to be set on each individual thermostat. This is achieved from a switched input from the Wiring Centre see the Wiring Centre Instruction Manual. Group Control Thermostat. When configured as a Group Control Thermostat see page 33, the unit allows central control of up to 7 Group Thermostats see below. There can be a maximum of 2 groups per 8 zone wiring centre. Permanent temperature override, Holiday, Party and Frost modes can be selected centrally from the Group Control Thermostat. Holiday mode will also be applied to a timer if applicable. Communication connections see page 13 are required for grouping the Group Thermostats. Thermostats can be also globally changed from heating to cooling thermostats if your system supports this by using the switched input connection on the JGWC see the Wiring Centre Instruction Manual along with the Communications connections mentioned above. Group Thermostat. When configured as a Group Thermostat see page 36, the unit will follow the time schedule and override modes of the Group Control Thermostat. The Group Thermostat can have its own programmed temperatures, Manual Override and also be removed from the group temporarily or permanently. Communication connections are required see page 13. Timer. When configured as a Timer see pages 32 and 34, the unit will operate without temperature control. In this configuration, the unit can be used as a Hot Water Timer. The Timer will also follow a Group Control Thermostat when Holiday mode has been activated requires communication connections. 06 JGSTAT2 Instruction Manual 7 System Overview Cables Power and Switching cable used to power thermostats and drive output.
